

David Adams becomes the 29th person inducted into the Georgia Trapshooting Hall of Fame. Although, David is not your typical inductee, because most people are known for their accomplishments as a shooter and the trophies they have won. David is better known for the love he has for the sport, and teaching the next generation to become champions. When you first meet him you may get the impression that he's not the nicest person, because he always tells you like it is, whether you want to hear it or not, and that's the way he comes across. But I can tell you, he is the most caring, unselfish, and loyal person you will ever meet. His love for teaching kids how to shoot and dedicating his time is what he is all about. You may not always agree with him or his ways. but I can promise you he knows exactly what he is doing, after all look at what Shelli, his daughter, has accomplished under his teachings, not only the discipline of the sport, but the knowledge and safety.

David's trapshooting career began in 1999 and his shooting accomplishments since that time include:

He has shot over 68,000 registered targets. David has also unselfishly served over 12 years as Alternate Delegate and Delegate on the GATA Board of Directors as. David not only helps do whatever it takes to ensure that things run smoothly and efficiently, he has catered the Georgia State Trap Shoot Saturday evening meal for 10 years, serving an average of over 300 people each time. The only thing he likes better than shooting is cooking for shooters.

The day that granddaughters Gracie and Kielee told him they wanted to start shooting he just smiled that smile of his and said "well here I go again".
